

SchmartBOARD™ NEWS

SchmartBoard|ez Customer Feedback Coming In.
Wow, how many hours have I spent debugging solder bridges on 0.5mm TSOP prototypes? Not any longer with Schmartboard|ez! Is it worth the extra $? Duh!- Thomas R Klenke, Parity Electronics

Just when it seemed SchamrtBoards where the best things on the planet to prototype with they came up with SchamrtBoard|ez THE easiest and BEST development/hobby tool anyone could ever ask for. Dan Stofer-Citadel Communications Corp

The Tech Museum

SchmartBoard Wins First "Inny"

The Tech Museum in San Jose has just announced a new award for Innovation for new products. SchmartBoard|ez was just awarded the first Inny award at the DEMOfall show. We are looking for SchmartBoard users that would like to have their SchmartBoard circuits displayed at the museum. We have room for a couple more. The museum will display the project for the first half of 2006. If someone has an idea that they'd like to display particularly for this museum exhibit, we may be able to supply the Schmartboards, let us know though as time is short! Your name will be shown with the display. Just imagine, your circuit can be in a museum like Edison and Tesla. Talk about bragging rights!
