December Service Special

Did You Know That SchmartBoard Offers Engineering and Manufacturing Services?

We can help you with circuit design, layout, fabrication, & much more.

We would like to offer our layout services to SchmartBoard customers and the ridiculous price of $30/Hr. as an introduction through the end of 2009.

To have us quote on your layout or other service, send us an e-mail to info@schmartboard.com and mention this special or call us at 510-659-1549 x13.

December SchmartBoard Special

One of the most fun things in life is to get a present. From the time we were children, the anticipation of receiving a gift and unwrapping it to find something special is magical...unless perhaps it is underwear or socks. (We will never send you underwear or socks) For the month of December, we will send you a gift with each SchmartBoard order. Read more about the December Special.
